

01 March 2013

Name change Blackstone Energy Solutions Inc.

Dear Valued Customer,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your business since we established Blackstone Energy Solutions in 2011, and inform you that effective 01 March 2013, Blackstone Energy Solutions Inc., in Western Canada has rebranded. Our new name is Enveritas Energy Inc.

Veritas is Latin for truth or the virtue of truthfulness and gave us the inspiration for our name. We invite you to visit our new website www.enveritasenergy.com to find out more.

Our name is changing but what will not change is our commitment to our customers:

- We will continue to search out new and innovative energy solutions to help you reduce your power and gas bills.
- We will negotiate the best deals possible on your behalf with energy companies and regulators.
- We will promote de-centralized energy at industry conferences and with regulators to help obtain choice for power and gas consumers.
- We will strive for continuous improvement and operational excellence to help you succeed in your business.

If you require further information or our certificate of name change please contact us and we will gladly supply these. Our new contact details are:
